Carmel Pine Cone

SATURDAY, APRIL 10, 1926. CARMEL-BY-THE-SEA, CALIFORNIA Vol. XII, No. 10.

VOTE FOR TRUSTEES MONDAY

The campaign is over. With bated breath and high hopes the candidates and friends of the candidates for city trustee await the results that the ballots will show about an hour after the polls close next Monday night.

Get that MONDAY. Twice the Pine Cone, having in mind the State election, said Tuesday. MONDAY is the day to vote. The polls will be open twelve hours, from 7 a.m. to 7 p.m., and all of the 511 citizens on the Great Register should vote.

Where to Vote

That there may be no confusion as to polling places, no cards having been sent out designating same, bear in mind that voters residing north of the center line of Ocean avenue vote at Goold's stage office on Ocean avenue. Those residing south of the center line of Ocean avenue vote at Denny's auto salesroom on Dolores Street.

Seven Candidates

The candidates are as follows:
Thomas L. Edler
Fenton P. Foster
R. H. Hoagland
John B. Jordan
Wm. T. Kibbler
Alfred K. Miller
George L. Wood

It will be noted that the name of Mary L. Hamlin does not appear in the foregoing list. Though having filed nomination papers several weeks ago, Mrs. Hamlin has been ill and detained in San Francisco, thus being unable to make a campaign. She has therefore withdrawn from the contest, and asks that her friends refrain from voting for her. Many who had intended to vote for Mrs. Hamlin will therefore have to revise their combinations.

The result of the election will be posted at the Pine Cone office.

NEW CONCRETE HIGHWAY READY FOR TRAFFIC

Contractor J. J. Connors announces that the Ocean-Carpenter highway in northeast Carmel, connecting with the county highway, will be open for traffic next Tuesday.

No solid tire vehicles will be permitted on this road. A violation of this regulation will result in arrest.

An example will be made of the first autoist who disregards the speed limit, which is twenty miles.

CARMEL TO HAVE P.-T. ASSOCIATION

There will be a meeting in the Sunset School Auditorium Wednesday, April 14, at 3:15 p.m., for the purpose of forming a Parent-Teacher Association.

With a handsome, new building to call the attention of the community to our school, the time seems ripe to awaken a deeper interest and a greater cooperation on the part of the citizens of our village.

Any man or woman who is interested in any aspect of the relation of the child to the community, who has anything to contribute from his experience or his research, who needs in any way the inspiration and help which such an organization should afford, is invited and urged to attend this meeting.

PRE-ELECTION MEETING OF CITY TRUSTEES

Purely as a public attraction, the city board of trustees meeting suffered a considerable shrinkage last Monday night. Whereas about a half-dozen spectators were present to witness the doings of the city fathers, Manzanita Theatre, featuring Willie Collier in "The Wanderer," had a full house.

Nevertheless, the trustees put on a fairly good meeting, solving several problems more or less to the satisfaction of everybody concerned.

Because of the nature of the bulk of the business transacted, it is quite appropriate to designate the meeting as "Sign Night."

First came the request of President Hartley of the Arts and Crafts for permission to erect three signs—two permanent ones on Ocean avenue directing motorists and pedestrians to the theater, which was granted. The request for erection of a cloth banner, to be flung across San Carlos avenue for ten days before each show, was turned down.

The application of Mrs. Harriet G. Stoddard to put up two signs showing the location of the new Carmel Art Gallery was granted.

Two large board signs on the Ocean-Carpenter extension will warn solid tire traffic off the new highway, and several smaller signs will also be put up.

Owing to some confusion on the part of the public as to the day and date of the city election, a quantity of quarter-cards giving election information were ordered printed. This ended the sign business.

Numerous complaints from auto owners as to ruined tops caused by low-growing foliage on San Antonio avenue resulted in directions to the superintendent of streets to do some trimming and thinning out.

The months-old controversy as to the sidewalk on the west side of Casanova street near Ocean avenue came up again. A preliminary step for adjusting the matter was the order of the board directing the city engineer to establish a sidewalk grade for 250 feet north.

The necessity for sewers in northeast Carmel was pretty thoroughly discussed and resulted in an order directing Deputy Health Officer Englund to confer with Health Officer Dr. H. D. Main about the matter.

Commendation for the City Clerk, City Marshal and the City Treasurer was contained in a report made by F. E. Wood, who inspected the city books.

Manzanita Theatre— Motion pictures every night, 7:00 and 9:00 o'clock.

FIRE MENACES ENTIRE BUSINESS SECTION

At 4:30 Wednesday afternoon, in the midst of a severe wind and rain storm, Carmelites were startled out of their normal complacency by the wail of the fire siren.

In less time than it takes to tell it a thousand people were on Ocean avenue watching the smoke roll out in great volume from the building occupied by the Carmel Investment Co., L. E. Gottfried and Cabbages and Kings.

That the adjoining building owned by R. C. Storie and leased by John B. Jordan, occupied by a grocery store and woman's apparel shop, was not destroyed may be attributed to three things, the brief cessation of the wind, a heavy rainfall and the prompt and efficient response of the fire department.

It is stated that the loss, approximately $8,000, is fully covered by insurance. Already plans are under way for a larger and more substantial building.

The cause of the fire is unknown, but there are many conjectures—defective wires, an overheated toaster, etc., etc.

ART DIRECTOR RETIRES

M. De Neale Morgan, for nine years director of art instruction in the annual Arts and Crafts summer school, will not serve in that capacity this year.

President J. H. Hartley of the Carmel Club of Arts and Crafts is at present considering the applications of various artists, at home and abroad, who desire to assume the position.

Miss Morgan's retirement is due to lack of time to devote to the work. She has several important commissions to execute and in addition has a number of private pupils.

SOMEWHAT SAFER

The following is from the official bulletin of the California State Highway Commission:

"One of the traversable county roads taken over by the division on January 1st was the road from Carmel to Big Sur River, Monterey County. This picturesque stretch has been somewhat of a bugbear to timid motorists on account of its narrowness, crooked alignment, and steep grades. Division V has a maintenance crew at work bettering drainage conditions, strengthening structures, and improving dangerous points. By next summer, the road will be somewhat safer to drive over than heretofore.

ONE WEEK LATE

Weather permitting, Easter finery in the shape of personal adornment, display of which was prevented by last Sunday's rain and wind storm, will be on show tomorrow. New Kellys, new neckscarfs, new sport clothes, in all the colors of the rainbow, will probably grace Ocean avenue between 12:30 and 1:30 tomorrow. Who said "a fashion show!"

NEXT WEEK IS HUMANE WEEK

By Louise Conger

Once a year the National Red Cross gives to the people of the United States an opportunity to rally about its standard, and to make possible the great work of relieving human suffering by becoming members of its organization. Our National Humane Society is built up along similar lines, extending its activities to children and animals—the helpless things that can make no appeal for themselves.

This great organization, with all its subdivisions, reaches from the Atlantic to the Pacific Coast like a great sheltering tree in a weary land. Scarcely a town no matter how humble and obscure that does not have its S.P.C.A., or at least an officer, to hold the magic wand of mercy over the helpless. Carmel, too, has its tiny twig of this great tree of pity.

We are entering upon HUMANE WEEK. Tomorrow will be Humane Sunday, when all the churches of the Peninsula are asked in the name of Human Charity to voice their approval of this work. Aside from the churches, each member of this community is asked to do something. A dollar a year is the least anyone can do—but even less will be appreciated. We are not going to insert here a lot of statistics regarding what has been done by the society during the past year for Carmel's waifs and strays, unwanted pets and the like. This information has been published from time to time in the Pine Cone. Suffice it to say, that many doors have been opened to the wanderers, and gas and chloroform handed out only when the strays were found to be undesirable or ill. The former method has proved that we are willing to take trouble about them. The easiest way is to put the little waif out—anyone with a voice and two dollars can do that—plus the willingness to shift the burden, with the everlasting excuse, "I'm too busy to be bothered." Although it's a well known psychological fast that people can always find time to do what they want to do. One statistic, however, is deserving of mention. The Carmel Society is helping to pay the salary of an officer to be on duty at Petaluma and make sure that the ranchers who receive old and disabled horses to be slaughtered for chicken feed are made to give them proper food pending their execution. Many of the horses were reported to be in such a weak and starving condition that they ate the wood of the fences and troughs to satisfy their hunger. This is one of the most disgraceful cruelties in the state of California.

The Carmel Society is bending all its efforts toward the establishment of a shelter, and is asking all members of the community to help, either by the annual membership of one dollar a year or by becoming a sustaining member at five dollars a year. Please enroll in this work as you would in the Red Cross, and help to abolish all forms of cruelty and neglect to little children and animals, so that when your time comes for crossing the Great Divide your passport will have on it "Ye did it unto the least of these—ye did it unto Me."

Subscriptions and contributions may be left with Mrs. Paul J. Denny, or sent through the Pine Cone office to the Society, or mailed to the Treasurer, Ralph Skene, Carmel.

Zero Hours of Automobile Accidents, 4, 5 and 8 P. M.

5:00 P. M 4:00 P. M. 8:00 P. M.

ONE thousand and thirty of Chicago's 11,785 auto accidents last year, according to the Stewart-Warner Safety Council for the prevention of automobile accidents, occurred between five and six o'clock, just when congestion is at its worst in the home-going rush. Only 47 of these 1,030 accidents were fatal.

Four o'clock is the children's zero hero. Thirty-three of the 182 children killed by autos in Chicago last year came to grief at four o'clock, playing in the streets after school.

Seven to nine is the dangerous time for adult auto fatalities, according to Chicago's 1924 record. Eighty-six of 353 such deaths occurred around the theater-going hours.

PUBLIC SCHOOLS WEEK

DURING the week of April 26 - May 1, the general public will have an excellent chance to hear discussed by speakers of national prominence some of the problems which are at present agitating the educational world. This is the week set aside by the Masons all over California to acquaint the people of this state with the real condition of its public schools.

With more money invested in public schools than in any other public or private business in the state of California, there is probably less active participation on the part of the public in the management of this great business than on the part of the stockholders of any other corporation in existence.

Is the expenditure of these vast sums justified? Are the public getting their money back dollar for dollar in better and more efficient boys and girls? The school people say they are; some of the parents, along with a large block of the more or less disinterested public, say they are not. Who knows? Will our taxes for schools keep on increasing? How can we prevent it?

These are some of the vital questions which will be thoroughly aired by competent speakers during Public Schools Week.

RADIO SHOULD DEVELOP NORMALLY

THE success and the very existence of radio broadcasting depends upon the general public that owns and uses receiving sets. The sending stations give them the sort of entertainment and instruction they want, or can be educated to want.

In this country, the Government interferes with and manages radio much less than in European countries. This, Secretary Hoover holds to be very commendable. He declares himself against any censorship on the broadcasters, except such as can be exercised by the listeners-in through the ordinary legal agencies.

It is recognized that all problems of distribution of equipment and broadcasting cannot be solved at once, and care should be taken not to move too fast in establishment of rules.

INDIAN NIGHT PLEASING

By Susan Porter

The audiences at Arts and Crafts on Friday and Saturday of last week could truly echo Dr. Burton's remark when he introduced the speakers,—"You are going to listen to real people," and again at the close, when he said,—"Not for years have we had an evening like this."

Almost never could one hope for an evening like that, when three different types of people who had faced nature at her hardest and had brought beauty and truth out of it, were gathered to tell what the desert and the desert Indians had meant to them.

We are not overstating, in our amiable Carmel fashion, we who were there, when we say that we were thrilled down to where we keep our souls. We saw Mrs. Armer's pictures, we heard Mr. Matthew Murphy talk, we listened as Dr. D. N. Lehmer sang, and we went home drunk with enthusiasm.

To see Mrs. Armer's big thrilling canvases is an emotional and psychic experience, and her talk, so unstudied and so vivid, made the liason between them and ourselves. Mr. Murphy, in the most direct and simple manner, made the Indians human beings for us and gave us a hunger for the infinitely more that he has to tell. And Dr. Lehmer's songs, taken down from Indian lips and gorgeously sung to Miss Lehmer's discreet and sympathetic accompaniment and the rain-clear notes of Mr. Armer's flute, made the audience clamor for encores. The doomful Grinding Song, the famous Buffalo Song with its sense of ringing distances, these and others that he generously gave stirred all ages and all temperaments.

A glimpse of a wonderful country and of a wonderful people; a people misunderstood, mishandled, their immemorial heritage of beauty and wisdom endangered today. May the number of those who know and care increase before it is too late to save them! Such evenings as these may help, and such a play as Mary Austin's "Fire," to be seen this year at the Forest Theater, will have its special significance for those already sensitized.

BOY SCOUTS PUT ON THEIR WORK

The manner in which Boy Scouts work and play was demonstrated to a large number of parents and friends at Sunset School last night.

Scouts and their leaders from all parts of the Monterey Peninsula took part in the drills and the ceremonies incident to the conferring of pins and badges of merit.

These courts of honor are held every month. Last night Carmel Martin presided.

IF OWLS ARE WISE, THEY WON'T SLEEP

Hooper Cup Series Standing

	Won	Lost
OWLS	5	2
HAWKS	4	3
LARKS	4	3
EAGLES	1	6

In the fight for the Abalone League's Hooper Cup Series, Fred Bechdolt's flock of Hoot Owls face a crucial test tomorrow. They play Jimmy Hopper's band of Hawks and behind Charlie Berkey's phenomenal pitching the high-winging Hawks look to be just the ones to pull the Owls out of the lead. Victory for Cap. Hooper's gang will create a tie for the lead. And if Halstead Yates' flight of Meadow Larks get a decision over the Eagles, the leadership will be split three ways and the stage set for a battle royal a week from tomorrow, the last game and grand finale of the 1926 Hooper Cup argument.

It was the Larks who drubbed Pilot Bechdolt"s pets two weeks ago. They ought to win from the Eagles. Col. Dutton, Commander-in-chief of the national birds, has tried everything else and is prepared to have recourse to the game laws to save the brave remnant of his band from complete extinction.

The business of stopping the Owls is decidedly up to the Hawks. By beating them they give not only themselves but also the Larks for a look-in for the top honors. Should both Hawks and Lark's win their games the triple-tie will be accomplished, but one of these two clubs is sure to be ultimately counted-out for they play each other in the final game of the series a week from tomorrow. At that time the Owls will be facing the Eagles, which wouldn't mean so much if the Eagles hadn't a lordly contempt for all the earth-bound poultry they have been forced to associate with in this league. It would be just like Col. Dutton's crew to wind-up the season with the grand gesture of walloping Brother Bechdolt's nine-pins, and thereby decanting the beans.

To Abalone League Players

The first game tomorrow gets under way at 1:30 promptly! Do your duty by your team and the league. Be at the field on time. If you can't make it let your captain know before Sunday morning so the rest of your club and the opposing team doesn't have to hang around while the question of substitutes is threshed out. There's a seventeen-to-one verdict against lateness or absence. Make tomorrow a big day!

RICHARD H. HOAGLAND
HIS PLATFORM

A MAN OF MATURE years and ripe judgment is "Dick" Hoagland, candidate for one of the vacancies on Carmel's Board of Trustees. He has the time, should he be elected, to give full and faithful service to the office. A visitor to and resident of Carmel since 1907, he is conversant with the intricacies of our municipal problems and is prepared to give of the richness of his experience. He has always been a giver. For the World War he gave a son. For Carmel-by-the-Sea he is willing to give the remaining years of an honorable life.

RICHARD HOAGLAND'S platform is an honest and straightforward one, its planks free of mysterious knots and deceptive "pitch-pockets." In so far as we, his friends, have been able to draw him out, the points on which he bases his bid for your vote are briefly expressed as follows:

Point 1. A full and free hearing at open meeting on all matters to come before the Board, and with strict impartiality to all concerned;

Point 2. An economical administration, yet not neglecting wise expenditures making for the greater beauty of Carmel, the health of you and your children through the years to come.

A simple platform! An upstanding one! And on this your vote is asked.

SPLENDID RESULTS ARE ACCOMPLISHED

The versatality and artistic ability of Contractor DeWitt Appleton, who has an established and more than local reputation for building artistic homes, is emphasized by the splendid results of his execution of the contract awarded him by the Misses L. M. and V. Jacks.

On the property adjoining the old Pacific Building in Monterey, the picturesque Tea Garden and Patio will shortly be ready for public use. Excepting perhaps the new San Carlos Hotel, no improvement in Monterey has attracted so much notice.

The tea garden patio, paved with chalk rock and enclosed by walls that protect it from the wind, is dignified and inviting, made especially attractive by the skillful manner in which the open-air grill has been installed at the west end. Flower, vine and shrubbery planting and the use of colorful awnings will subdue the brightness of the white walls, and render it a place of exceptional attractiveness.

The patio occupies most of the property and vistas extending from the tea garden through the Mission arches. Four well-grown magnolia trees have been set out in formal arrangement and give character and color to the patio scheme.

The arbor running along the west wall, over which climbing roses will be grown, and the beds laid out for flower borders, will render the patio one of the most colorful and lovely spots on the Monterey Peninsula, a place that will not only be enjoyed by thousands of visitors but throughout the year by residents.

The dignified and sincere simplicity of the tea garden and patio is the result of careful planning by landscape and architectural engineers. Careful restraint is shown in the good taste which has been demonstrated in the entire plan. There is no feature that detracts from the dignity and comfort of this addition to old Spanish Monterey.

The Misses Jacks have further plans for the remodeling and beautification of the old Pacific Building.

The next play at Arts and Crafts Theater, under the direction of George Ball, will be "In the Next Room," by Eleanor Robson and Harriet Ford. This big Broadway success may be seen on Friday and Saturday, April 23 and 24.

DINNER DANCE AT DEL MONTE OPENING

The formal opening of the new $2,000,000 main building of the Hotel Del Monte has been set for Saturday, May 8, and at that time this noted resort will hold open house to the entire West. The feature of the opening, of course, will be the dinner dance.

Reservations for this event are coming in from all parts of California and at least two thousand merry-makers are expected to participate in the festivities.

The dining room of the new hotel is 210 feet long with 27-foot landscape windows on all four sides. Directly opposite the entrance to the room is a fountain with mosaic tile backing, a wonderful piece of workmanship. The grill, on the ground floor, is being decorated in fanciful fashion by Julian Ellsworth Garnsey, of Los Angeles.

Although the hotel is booked to capacity as far as rooms go, for the opening, it is understood that it is still possible to secure reservations either in the main dining room or in the equally attractive grill. However, these reservations should be made immediately as the reservation list is growing very rapidly.

This opening will be one of the foremost events of the season. San Francisco, Los Angeles and local society is turning out en masse.

This cape does not have to be lined, the collar is a straight string and the finish of the edges is simple in the extreme. Paris makes these ensemble costumes for the most part with the short, circular cape and a simple two-piece frock. They are smart in camel's-hair twills and shepherd's checks. Shantung is very new and albatross is being worn this Spring.

SQUIRREL USES WIRES AS OVERHEAD HIGHWAY

A telephone wire might be termed a public highway, but rather a highway of speech than one for transportation.

However, this fact does not seem to be generally known, at least not among our animal friends. From Wilmington, Del., comes the story of a squirrel that travels a mile every day by telephone wire for its meals, crawling all the distance along the wires. William Krause, a grocer, some little time ago coaxed the squirrel down from a telephone pole by offering it nuts, and since then the squirrel has made its appearance every day. Out of curiosity, Krause followed it one morning and found that its nest was in the woods fully a mile distant.

Concrete pavement gives greater value per dollar than any other type

Santa Cruz Chose Dividend Paying Pavement

Santa Cruz, California, is fast becoming one of America's most famous seaside resorts and is typical of many American cities which daily become bigger and better than the day before.

Six years ago Santa Cruz decided to improve permanently Seabright Avenue, and wanted to make sure that its expenditure for paving would be a dividend paying investment.

They decided on concrete—almost two-thirds of a mile, 36 feet wide. For six years the cost of maintaining this pavement has been almost insignificant.

It is clean, attractive looking and insures skid-free safety in all weather.

Today Santa Cruz has 251 blocks—about 30 miles—of this modern permanent pavement. Property owners are continually petitioning for more.

What Santa Cruz can tell other cities about street paving is worth money.

All of the facts are in our free booklet on "Concrete Streets." Ask for your copy.

A STATEMENT

I have been asked to run for Trustee for the City of Carmel. I have agreed to do this, and my name appears on the ballot. I am willing to give my services if they are desired by the people. I stand independent and unpledged.

I believe that there is a wonderful future for Carmel; that the growth should be steady and kept down to the point where it will not grow beyond our means; that the natural beauty should be preserved; that the city should be kept clean; that the streets should be reasonably smooth for the comfort of our own motorists as well as visitors; that sanitary conditions should be so completed that they cannot be questioned; that trees should be preserved; that the people should express their wishes and ideas, so that the desire of the majority may be known without doubt, and that the majority should control the city's affairs.

I think that the lot owned by the city for a park should have some attention immediately. With all the visitors entering the city by the Ocean Avenue extension, this lot should at least be made presentable. I think that Carmel should have an adequate Public Library. I feel that an expensive City Hall should not come to the people until they are ready to pay for it, but I would not work against it if it were needed. We should have sufficient police and fire protection. I have lived through three real estate booms in different places, and know that they are an abomination.

I think the great aim of this community should be the continuation of the development of the arts and the preservation of the atmosphere that gives peace, joy and enlightenment to so many people, and that the aim should also be to be generous and welcome more people that they may enjoy these same gifts.

I make this statement as it may guide you in marking your ballot.

ALFRED K. MILLER

TELEPHONE WORKERS---The Cable Splicer

Splicing Underground and Overhead Cable.

After the poles have been set and the aerial cable put up and the terminal boxes mounted on the poles, or after the underground conduit has been constructed and the underground cable pulled, then the cable splicer, who has one of the many interesting jobs in the telephone field, completes the task, making communication possible by splicing the wires and cables together and covering them with a lead cylinder securely sealed at the ends with molten solder. Not until he has performed this task can the arteries of communication be opened for traffic.

In the work of constructing and maintaining telephone lines, the cable splicer is one of the most important telephone craftsmen. His labors are both aloft on aerial cables and in manholes on underground cables. In the Bell System there are now 10,000,000 miles of wire in aerial cables and over 30,000,000 miles in underground cables. Most of the cable splicer's work, therefore, is invisible to the general public, but he can often be seen on a platform swung from an aerial cable suspended on a pole line, fanning out the wires and splicing together the conductors in the cables.

Some cables contain over 2,000 conductors. The cable splicer must identify each of these conductors so as to be sure that the wires are properly connected throughout the consecutive lengths of cable. This he does by means of electrical tests. It is a job that requires no little skill and considerable training, but the capable cable splicer becomes an adept at it and with experience is able to join together the "talk-tracks" of a neighborhood in a surprisingly short time.

TOM PHILLIPS TO SEEK OFFICE OF COUNTY SHERIFF

Well Known County Resident to Make Aggressive Fight in Coming Election

Thomas E. Phillips, more familiarly known everywhere throughout the county as "Tom" Phillips, will be a candidate for sheriff at the ensuing election, it was definitely announced yesterday.

Acceding to importunities of scores of friends and in realization of an ambition he has cherished for some time, Phillips stated in making the announcement that he is in the race to win and that he proposes to make an aggressive campaign for the office.

Phillips is eminently qualified by both official experience and business ability to satisfactorily perform the duties, besides being a man of high standing and unquestioned integrity.

For a number of years before coming to Salinas to make his home he was engaged in the livery business at King City, besides holding the office of constable at the same time. After retiring from the livery business he engaged successfully in conducting an auto stage line between King City and Jolon, the first in the county. After coming to Salinas he established a garage there, which later he sold to E. F. Rossi, the present owner.

Served Under Nesbitt

His greatest official experience, however, was gained as a deputy sheriff. He served four years in that capacity during the administration of former Sheriff W. J. Nesbitt, and gave satisfaction to his superior as well as to the people of the county in general.

For the past eighteen months Phillips has been a member of the Salinas police force, a position that he fills with distinguished ability.

While a member of former Sheriff Nesbitt's official family, Phillips had an ambition to run for sheriff, but he withdrew from the race at the suggestion of his friends. This time, he says, he is not going to "lay down" for anybody, but will start campaigning immediately and keep it up until the election is over with.—Adv.

NATIONS MAY ADOPT A THIRTEEN-MONTH CALENDAR

Fresh stimulous has recently been given to the reform of the calendar by the action of the committee of inquiry of the League of Nations in calling representatives of the Roman, Greek, and other orthodox churches of the East, the Anglican Church of Great Britain, and about 100 Protestant churches to discuss the advisability of making Easter a fixed instead of a movable date, dependant on the full moon. The first or second Sunday in April has been suggested.

Further sessions of the committee of inquiry are to be held soon to make definite recommendations to the League of Nations regarding plans for calendar reform. Enthusiastic support has been given in many quarters to the plan that would divide the year into thirteen 28-day months, with an extra year day at the end of the last week in December. Every four years a leap day would be inserted at the end of June. The change, it is said, could be made easily on January 1, 1928, as that will be Sunday.

Prof. C. F. Marvin, Chief of the Weather Bureau of the United States Department of Agriculture, indorses the 13-month year because it would greatly simplify meteorological and other scientific records. He points out also that there are innumerable advantages to economic, agricultural, civic, educational, and business interests in having all months and quarters exactly alike, and the numbered days of each month always falling on the same day of the week. Many difficulties now existing in compiling accurate comparative statistics, in accounting, banking, or computing interest would be done away with.

An interesting fact in connection with the proposed calendar is that it harmonizes in many respects with the plan of the old calendar used by the Israelites.

SALINAS LAWYER FOR DISTRICT ATTORNEY

With the primary election campaign getting actively under way, an announcement of much political interest is that Russell Scott, one of the leading lawyers of Salinas, has decided to enter the contest for the office of district attorney. Scott's action is taken at the earnest solicitation of many friends in various parts of the county and he will have a strong backing everywhere.

For the past nine years the candidate has been one of the most successful practitioners in the courts of Monterey county, both in the handling of civil as well as criminal cases.

Scott was born and raised in Ukiah, Mendocino county, in which county his parents are still residents and engaged in farming. After receiving his early training from the public schools of his native county, he studied law for five years, and on March 12, 1917, was admitted to practice in all the courts of this state. Immediately after, Scott came to Salinas, and was associated with Mayor Frank S. Clark of that city. On August 1, 1924, he formed a law partnership with former Superior Judge J. A. Bardin, in Salinas, which is still in force, but it is understood that the same will be severed as the political campaign progresses.

Scott will make the campaign for district attorney on a platform that includes a strict enforcement of all laws, a close attention to official duties, and fair and impartial treatment to everyone having business dealings with his office.

With youth, vigor, experience and broad-mindedness behind him, Scott's friends believe that he is amply able to carry out his program, uninfluenced by any outside considerations. —Adv.

Steers to be rounded up by army tanks is part of the program that will be put on at the Giggling Reservation near Salinas tomorrow, according to Captain Frank Heple of the Fortieth Tank Company of Salinas.

Six of the company's big tanks will put on maneuvers for the benefit of the Pathe and International news reel organizations. Arrangements are being made to have California Rodeo cowboys present to see if they can ride the tanks as well as they can bronchos. A number of wild steers are being rounded up for the event. The public is invited to bring picnic lunches and watch the maneuvers and the taking of the pictures. Cowboys who are willing to ride a bucking, roaring, bullet-spitting, ferocious tank are requested to notify Harvey Abbott or the Salinas Chamber of Commerce.

CHURCH CARD PARTY IS WELL ATTENDED

The card party held last Monday evening at La Playa Hotel for the benefit of the Carmel Mission, was quite a success, both financially and socially. A good time was had by all. Among the prize winners were: Mrs. Robert Leidig, first prize, side of bacon; Samuel J. Miller, second prize, a large ham. The door prize was won by Mrs. A. McGarrah, it being a cash prize of five dollars. Mrs. McGarrah generously donated it to the cause. The prizes were donated by the merchants of Carmel and Monterey, also by the management of La Playa Hotel.

An Appreciation to The Man Who Pays

The will to pay is hereditary, just as much as red hair or buck teeth. It is a common fallacy that a man pays his debts because he has money. This is not necessarily true. On the contrary, the matter of paying has only a remote relation to money.

On the one hand is your friend with abundance of money, who thinks he can not be cajoled, threatened, beaten or gassed into paying the most ordinary debt.

On the other hand, the poor fellow without a visible dollar—you know him—who is Johnny on the bill. Money has little to do with either case. It is the breed of the man.

The man who pays is the man who thinks in advance. He never flashes a roll; he does not drive a car and not pay the monthly installments; he does not hang up the butcher, or the grocer, for food that he can not afford to eat; he never lights the fire without wondering where the coal man gets off. He never throws the Bull, or pitches the Bluff, nor gives notes, nor writes checks dated tomorrow, but when the bills come in, he is there with the coin of the Realm, God bless him.

Sometimes he feels sore at the rest of us. He does not see that he gets on any better than the fellow who tries to skin as he goes. Still he goes on and on, pays and pays, simply because it is in the breed.

And after all, the world does think a lot of his breed. The man who pays is the bulwark of Society. He is the balance wheel of civilization. He is the mainspring of commerce. Business blesses him and he has honor among men for all time.—(W. H. McKellar, in Roycroft Magazine.)

Scientists Now Know Reason for Woman's Physical Beauty

Why are certain women admired wherever they go? Why do men like to be seen with them? Not because they are painted and padded, but because they literally radiate health, beauty and energy. They jealously guard their health, and nature has rewarded them with the beauty, attractiveness and virile womanhood that makes life a constant delight.

YOU, TOO, CAN BE PRETTIER! Dr. H. S. Thacher has perfected a delicious, nourishing vegetable tonic that is now being used by countless numbers of women, because it quickly helps remove the sallowness that comes from a torpid liver, aids the removal of impurities from the system that cause pimples and other disfigurements, improve the digestion, round out the girlish lines of your figure with firm, solid flesh.

TRY THIS TONIGHT! Take a delicious tablespoon of Dr. Thacher's Liver and Blood Syrup after the next meal. Notice the quick difference in the way you look and feel. If you are not completely satisfied the small cost will be returned without any convenience whatsoever to you. Get Dr. Thacher's in

REPORT ON CITY FINANCE

F. E. Wood, auditor, has submitted to the city Board of Trustees, the following report as to the city finances:

"As instructed, I have audited the books of the City Clerk and City Treasurer for the period beginning January 1, 1922 to and including March 31, 1926, and find them correct.

"All monies received have been credited to the proper Funds.

"Duly approved Warants were exhibited covering all disbursements and same had been charged to the proper Funds.

"The balances standing to the credit of each Fund as of April 1, 1926, were proven and found to be correct.

" * * * I find that the books have been kept in a very careful and neat manner and full credit should be given to both the Clerk and the Treasurer for their work.

"I note that, owing to the growth of the City and the addition of new Funds, due to city improvements, bond issues, etc., that the work of both officials, especially that of the City Clerk, has very materially increased since I made the previous audit.

"Due to the above facts, I feel that at this time, there are some changes that can be made in the accounting system that will facilitate the work of the Clerk and Treasurer and make for an improvement of the records of the City. These matters can be more readily understood and explained verbally than to be incorporated at length in a report. I would be pleased to take them up with you should you so desire."

"Irene" will be shown at the Manzanita Theatre tomorrow night. It is one of the best things that Colleen Moore has yet done. There should be a crowded house for both shows.

And though the music of the thrush
Be stilled; the forest wrapped in hush,
With all the green things silent in the light
That falls from kindled windows of the sky—
The pines will whisper through the night.—Ralph Culnan.

WESTERN BORN

Mary Carolyn Davies

I'm western born
And western bred
The West's in my heart.
The west's in my head.
I'm western-minded, western made,
Western visioned and unafraid,
Western geared and western trained,
Western souled and western brained,
I want to live my life each day
With western friends in a western way.
And when I die
I want to lie
In western ground
'Neath the western sky.

Statement of the Ownership, Management, Circulation, etc., Required by the Act of Congress of August 24, 1912.

Of the Carmel Pine Cone, published weekly at Carmel-by-the-Sea, Calif., for April 1, 1926.
State of California,
County of Monterey. SS.

Before me, a Notary Public in and for the State and County aforesaid, personally appeared W. L. Overstreet, who, having been duly sworn according to law, deposes and says that he is the Editor of the "Carmel Pine Cone," and that the following is, to the best of his knowledge and belief, a true statement of the ownership, management (and if a daily paper, the circulation), etc., of the aforesaid publication for the date shown in the above caption, required by the Act of Congress of August 24, 1912, embodied in section 443, Postal Laws and Regulations, printed on the reverse side of this form, to-wit:

1. That the names and addresses of the publishers, editors, managing editor, and business managers are:

Publishers, Pine Cone Press Publishing Corporation, Carmel-by-the-Sea, Calif.

Editor, W. L. Overstreet, Carmel-by-the-Sea, Calif.

Managing Editor, W. L. Overstreet, Carmel-by-the-Sea, Calif.

Business Manager, W. L. Overstreet, Carmel-by-the-Sea, Calif.

2. That the owners are (Give names and addresses of individual owners, or, if a corporation, give its name and the names and addresses of stockholders owning or holding 1 per cent or more of the total amount of stock): Pine Cone Press Publishing Corporation; Argyll Campbell, 1 share; William L. Overstreet, 298 shares; Katheryn J. Overstreet, 1 share. Total shares in corporation, 300 shares.

3. That the known bondholders, mortgagees and other security holders owning or holding 1 per cent or more of total securities are: (If there are none, so state.) None.

W. L. OVERSTREET.

Subscribed and sworn to before me this 5th day of April, 1926.

(Seal) L. S. SLEVIN,

Notary Public in and for the County of Monterey, State of California.

My commission expires January 10, 1928.

PERSONAL ATTENTION TO EVERY CUSTOMER

If There Were No Electricity During Daylight Hours!

Suppose that you opened your paper and found such an announcement of curtailed service.

Your mind immediately visualizes no toast for breakfast, no percolator coffee, no elevator to your office, no light in dark corners, no electric iron, no thousand and one things that make the every day life electrically comfortable.

And yet thirty short years ago when the electric art was in its infancy electric service was available between the hours of sunset and midnight only when each separate community had to have its own small electric generating plant.

Then came pioneers who were willing to risk their savings by venturing them in an untried field. The electric power company was born, transmission lines were built to join neighboring communities, and large and efficient plants were made to serve broad territories. By combining scattered and varied demands the larger plant was able to keep busy most of the time and the 24-hour day of electric convenience was made possible.

—FACTS—

The cost of living is 65% higher than in 1913.
The cost of electricity is less than in 1913.
Don't deny yourself electric convenience. Our Commercial Department is always at your service.
